

Just because it's public land
doesn't mean it's open to snowmobiling or that off-trail riding is permitted.

Common public land closures include:

- All Congressionally-designated Wilderness is closed to snowmobiling, punishable by a $5,000 fine and up to 6 months in jail.
- Wildlife Winter Range is closed to snowmobiling except on a designated trail.
- Non-motorized zones are closed to snowmobiling.

Ask First & Know Before You Go

Otherwise presume STAY ON TRAIL is the rule across all public lands!

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Highway Administration

www.snowmobileinfo.org

Downloadable online resources.